First Friends Monkey

Item number 76064

The First Friends Monkey is a posable animal figure with a clicking head, tail and arms and feet that squeak when pressed. The child turns each part to hear it click, squeezes the feet for a squeak and poses the monkey in different positions. It is safe for teething, collectable and easily combined with other First Friends animals and figures for role play and animal talk.

KEY FEATURES

-  Clicking head and arms
Head, tail and arms turn with a click the child can hear and feel.
-  Squeaking feet
Press the feet to hear them squeak.
-  Safe for teething
Made to be mouthed safely by younger children.
-  Collectable figure
Plays alongside the other animals and figures in the First Friends collection.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

-  Fine motor skills
Turning the head, tail and arms and pressing the feet works small hand movements.
-  Cause and effect
Turns produce a click and presses produce a squeak, so actions have clear results.
-  Imaginative play
A posable monkey invites role play with other First Friends animals and figures.
-  Language development
Talking about the monkey's features, sounds and habits builds vocabulary.
