Highchair Learning Centre

Item number 76111

A double-sided activity centre that fixes to a highchair tray with four suction cup feet. Toddlers from twelve months spin the drum, turn the clicking flower, press the squeaker, twirl the rattling ball, find themselves in the peek-a-boo mirror and slide the counting beads. Four colourful shapes, each with its own rattle, add shape sorting and colour matching. It stays in place while babies explore.

KEY FEATURES

-  Double sided
Activities on both sides of the centre.
-  Suction cup feet
Four suction cups keep it firmly on the tray.
-  Shape sorting
Four colourful rattling shapes to sort and colour-match.
-  Mirror and beads
Peek-a-boo mirror and sliding counting beads.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

-  Sensory exploration
Spinning, clicking, squeaking, rattling and a mirror engage most primary senses.
-  Shape recognition
Posting the four shapes teaches matching by shape and colour.
-  Early numeracy
Sliding the counting beads introduces early counting.
-  Fine motor skills
Turning, pressing, twirling and sliding practise a range of hand movements.
